FOREWORD

Congratulations on your decision to apply for certified professional title. In doing so, you have acknowledged that academic qualifications are only the beginning of a career and that continuing professional education and development is an essential component of maintaining and expanding your knowledge, skills and abilities after initial formal education has been completed.

Richard J. Thomas Foreword Achieving the title of Certified Professional title is the next important goal in a career . Professionals who attain the title represent the highest professional standards, expressing a commitment to keeping pace with the increasing expectations and requirement of business in our modern world. This title is a credential which affords you and your employer international recognition and most importantly, certification that you are competent to practice and exercise leadership within the team.

Successful achievement of the title will require effort and determination on your part, as with any internationally-recognised hallmark of professional excellence. However, I can assure you that the benefits that follow make it well worthwhile.

We wish you luck in your application and are here to support you throughout the entire process.
